Mayor Ballard Appoints Matthew Kimmick as Controller

INDIANAPOLIS – Mayor Greg Ballard today appointed Matthew Kimmick as Controller for the City of Indianapolis, effective March 9, 2015. Kimmick will succeed Jason Dudich, who was appointed Chief of Staff in October, 2014.

“Matthew has exemplified great leadership during his time as Interim Controller, Deputy Controller and Budget Director,” Ballard said. “His knowledge and expertise will be a great asset for the Office of Finance and Management and the City of Indianapolis.”

Kimmick’s career in economics and finance began at Indiana State Budget Agency as a tax analyst for three years. He then served as a tax accountant for nine years at Ernst & Young, LLP in Indianapolis and Dominion Resources Services, Inc. in Virginia. Kimmick began working for the City of Indianapolis in 2014 as Deputy Controller and Budget Director. He has served as Interim Controller since November 2014.

“I am humbled by the opportunity to serve as Controller, and I am sincerely appreciative of the Mayor’s confidence in me,” Kimmick said. “I look forward to continuing the great work of this administration and serving the citizens of Indianapolis and Marion County.”

Kimmick holds a Bachelor of Science from the University of Southern Indiana in economics and finance. He also holds a Master of Business Administration from Virginia Commonwealth University.
